

Where to Eat

A few convenient choices near the conference hotel, plus some Uptown favorites if you want an evening of it.

AT THE HILTON CHARLOTTE UNIVERSITY PLACE

Edgewater Bar & Grille

At the Hilton Charlotte University Place

Contemporary American dining with a Southern twist. Seafood and steaks are specialties, with breakfast, lunch and dinner available.

WEBSITE >

CLOSE TO THE HOTEL

Boardwalk Billy's Raw Bar & Ribs

9005 J M Keynes Dr #2

A casual spot for seafood, ribs, burgers and drinks.

WEBSITE

Nakato Japanese Steakhouse

8601 University Executive Park Drive

Japanese hibachi-style dining, sushi and other Japanese favorites.

WEBSITE >

Zapata's Cantina & Mexican Restaurant

8927 J M Keynes Drive

Casual Mexican dining with tacos, fajitas, enchiladas and margaritas.

WEBSITE >

Want more choices?

Uptown Charlotte offers fine dining, seafood, steakhouses and cocktail spots. See page 2.

Take a Ride to Uptown

Everything from polished steakhouses to oysters, global flavors and contemporary Southern cooking.

UPTOWN FAVORITES

Caroline's Oyster Bar

120 E. Brooklyn Village Ave.

Seafood-focused restaurant with oysters, shellfish and a lively atmosphere.

WEBSITE

Dean's Italian Steakhouse

128 E. Brooklyn Village Avenue

An upscale steakhouse with an Italian influence, including steaks, handmade pastas, cocktails and desserts.

WEBSITE >

Mariposa

500 South Tryon Street

Inside the Mint Museum with a world-to-table menu, cocktails and a fine-dining atmosphere.

WEBSITE

The Capital Grille

201 N. Tryon St.

Classic upscale steakhouse dining with steaks, seafood and an extensive wine list.

WEBSITE >

Dogwood Southern Table & Bar

601 S College Street

Contemporary Southern and Carolina cooking with a cocktail-bar component, located inside The Westin Charlotte.

WEBSITE >

Restaurant hours, availability and menus may change. Reservations are recommended for Uptown dining.